Chuck Langmead, most recently President, Industrial Food America, will have responsibility for McCormick's industrial businesses globally and will chair the company's Global Industrial Strategy Council. Mr. Langmead has been with McCormick for more than 27 years and has held numerous leadership positions including President, U.S. Industrial Group, and Vice President & General Manager, Food Service and Restaurant Division. Mr. Langmead is an Executive member of McCormick's Multiple Management Board.

Barry Capen has been promoted to the role of President, U.S. Industrial Group reporting to Chuck Langmead. Mr. Capen joined McCormick in 1980 as Account Manager for McCormick's U.S. Industrial business. He has held leadership positions with increasing responsibility in the global industrial business over the last 20 years. He was Vice President, Industrial for Europe, Middle East and Africa. Prior to this position, Mr. Capen led the U.S. Consumer Food Manufacturers segment of the industrial business. His most recent role was Vice President Global Industrial Customers, where he worked closely with our strategic global industrial customers. Mr. Capen is also an Executive member of the Multiple Management Board.

"These new assignments will help align McCormick to strengthen global customer intimacy," said Ken Wilson, McCormick Chairman, President and CEO. "Chuck and Barry's efforts will help drive our long-term objectives to grow our business globally and continue our success in developing great flavors with our global strategic customers."
